My name is Kris Kroncke and I would like to introduce myself to you as your new District Three Police Department Commander. My predecessor, Traci Keesee, has been promoted to the position of Division Chief of Technology Services Safety and will be working at Denver Police Department Headquarters.

I was promoted from the rank of captain to commander on April 18th and have been attempting to catch a breath ever since. I am very excited to be given this opportunity and look forward to meeting and working with all of you. I was hoping to get this introduction letter out sooner; however, I have been having some computer issues and was just able to get most of your email addresses imputed this week.

I am in my 26th year of being a Denver Police Officer and have had the opportunity to work in various assignments. I have worked in Patrol for approximately 14 years and was assigned to the Investigation Division for approximately 11 ½ years.

This is my first opportunity to be stationed in District Three; however, I have had the previous Patrol Division assignments:

- District One: Patrol Officer and Field Training Officer
- District Four: Street Sergeant
- Weed and Seed supervisor (city wide responsibilities)
- District Six: Special Operations Sergeant
- District Two: Detail Commander and Administrative Commander.

My investigation experience has been with the Vice Drug Control Bureau. I have served in the following areas:

- Street Enforcement Supervisor: We addressed neighborhood complaints and open-air drug trafficking.
- Major Peddler Unit Commander: We focused on mid-level drug traffickers, property crime organizations, and oversaw the canine interdiction team.
- Street Enforcement Commander: I was in charge of the street level narcotics and vice teams.
- Front Range Task Force Commander: I was in charge of a multi-agency task force that targeted drug trafficking organizations. This task force was staffed with local, state, and federal investigators. I was also in charge of a similarly staffed fugitive task force.
- Vice Drug Bureau Captain: Basically I was overseeing all of the above.

Sincerely,
Kris
