

Teller Elementary

Safety for our Kids

Teller Elementary School

- Neighborhood school
- Sought after school for kids to attend from all over Denver
- 540 students including ECE
- Autistic Severe Center starting Fall 2021
- Earlier bell schedule

The path that got us here

- Faculty member hit by a car
- Child recently hit by a car
- Parent & child nearly hit by a car
- Drivers consistently disregard school zone speed limit all around Teller.
- Drivers consistently run stop signs.
- Construction detours causing more traffic closer to Teller
- Meeting with DOTI & DPS School Safety reps with Mrs. Bates and Michele Padilla at PM pick up.
- No DOTI rep observed morning drop off although requested.
- PTA meeting in May was attended by Chris Hinds who promised action on several items and has not delivered on anything.
- No DOTI liaison has contacted Teller administration or Teller PTA.

Demands for Safety Improvement

Demands for Safety Improvement

Differences in Signage

Bromwell Elementary

- Two flashing school zone lights on Josephine
- Digital “your speed” sign a few yards away from the flashing lights
- DPD enforcement
- Plenty of signage denoting school zone

Good Shepherd Catholic School

- Two flashing school zone lights on 6th Avenue
- Two crosswalks on 6th Avenue with buttons
- One crosswalk in front of GSCS on Elizabeth St.
- Plenty signage of school zone around GSCS

- Clear crosswalks
- Clear signage
- Flashing school zone light

Good Shepherd Catholic School

Poor Signage at Teller

E 12th Ave westbound

E 12th Ave eastbound

Poor Signage at Teller

E 11th Ave westbound

E 11th Ave eastbound

Poor Crosswalks at Teller

12th Ave & Jackson

12th Ave & Jackson

Poor Crosswalks at Teller

11th Ave & Garfield

Options to improve safety

Flashing X-walk

Digital school zone sign

Options to improve safety

School zone sign on Elizabeth St.

X-walk on Elizabeth St.

